

Please do not weaken Wisconsin's No-Call law by creating a watered-down Federal mandate. Special interest lobbyist groups do not care about the general consumer, only in furthering their business. The mere fact that almost 80% of Wisconsin homes have registered for "No-Calls" should be proof as to the desires of the public. And it is this public, who you are supposed to serve--not well-funded corporate special interest groups.